23RD INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION ON ANIMALS IN ART

RULES OF ENTRY

Theme

Animals in Art. Pieces must depict an animal (fish and insects are considered animals for the purposes of this exhibition). Any work that is determined not to meet the spirit of the exhibit will not be accepted.

Juror & Judge

Katherine Rutledge is an artist and New Orleans native who received her BFA from Louisiana State University and studied at the Baton Rouge Fine Arts Academy and the New Orleans Academy of Fine Arts. Her work is included in the permanent collection of the LSU Rural Life Museum, the McIlhenny Collection, and the Audubon Institute in New Orleans.

Awards

$1000 Best of Show award, as well as other cash awards. One entry will be chosen to appear on the cover of the Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association.

Eligibility

Open to all artists 18 years of age or older. All media. Works must be original. All artwork must be priced and available for sale.

Entries

Selection of works to be accepted in the exhibition will be chosen from 2" x 2" mounted 35 mm slides or on disk in JPG or TIF format. Only one slide or digital image should be submitted for each 2-dimensional work.

A maximum of three slides or digital images may be submitted for each 3-dimensional work, though multiple entries can be placed on one CD. Each slide or disk must be labeled with name, title, and medium; each slide must be labeled to indicate the top of the artwork. Maximum size of entry is 60"x60"x48". Any accepted artwork that differs from the slide or digital image will be disqualified. Slides or disks will only be returned if submitted with a self-addressed, pre-paid postage envelope.

Fees

A non-refundable fee of $15.00 for each piece of art entered must accompany the entry form. A check or money order should be made payable to Louisiana State University with the notation "Animals in Art Entry" in the memo line.

Sales

All work submitted must be priced and for sale. A 20% commission will be taken on all sales.
